

Ballad of the Unknown Soldier

By Thomas D. McGraw

Battle's done
Vict'ry's won
Now the fields grow green
May they never be crimson again
We're alive we are free
'Cause of someone like me
In the tomb in the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

No more fire
No more pain
From the guns that rain
Over fields over meadows and plains
We're alive we are free
"Cause of someone like he
In the tomb in the tomb of the
Unknown Soldier

Bold and brave
It's his life he gave
And forevermore
May our love endure
And in his prayer is for us to swear
That he shall not have died in vain.

Battle's done
Vict'ry's won
Now the fields grow green
May they never be crimson again.
We're alive we are free
'Cause of someone like he
In the tomb in the tomb of the
Unknown Soldier
In the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.
